

Privacy Statement

The College is bound by the National Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act. The College may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to schools' operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate for the changing education environment.

In relation to personal information of students and parents, the College's primary purpose of collection is to enable the College to provide education for the student. This includes satisfying both the needs of parents and the needs of the student throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at the College.

Standard

The College expects parents to support all College policies and cooperate with teachers and administrators. The College also asks parents to ensure that their children uphold the expectations of the College. The College reserves the right to suspend or dismiss any student whose academic progress or conduct for any reason is deemed by the Principal to be unsatisfactory or whose parents do not cooperate adequately with College personnel. In order to uphold the ethos of this College and for the mutual benefit of all students, their families and members of the community, the expectations of students and their parents/guardians are clearly set out in the Enrolment Agreement issued at the time of offer of enrolment.
